

Hall Ticket Number:

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Code No. : 15206 S

VASAVI COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING (AUTONOMOUS), HYDERABAD
B.E. (CBCS) V-Semester Supplementary Examinations, May/June-2019
Human Values and Professional Ethics-II

Time: 2 hours

Max. Marks: 50

Note: Answer ALL questions in Part-A and any FIVE from Part-B

Part-A (5 × 2 = 10 Marks)

1. Define the Engineering profession in your own words?
2. Name the Professional body pertaining to your branch of engineering?
3. Name the type of wealth that you should again in abundance during your college days.
4. Describe the Johari window?
5. Differentiate between Civic sense and Civic virtues?

Part-B (5 × 8 = 40 Marks)

6. a) Living a life of purpose, means: [4]
- (a) having a goal for oneself and achieving it.
 - (b) having a goal with a larger purpose beyond oneself.
 - (c) Amassing wealth.
 - (d) Achieving success at any cost by compromising ethics.
- Justify each statement.
- b) Name FIVE Professional ethical values one should not part with. [4]
7. a) Why are all professionals members of professional bodies, either by mandatory registration or otherwise. Mention the professional body of your branch of engineering. [4]
- b) Describe with examples the meaning of cooperation, coordination, reliability and confidentiality, essential at the workplace? [4]
8. a) "What you are is God's gift to you. What you become is your gift to God". Setting goals in life is therefore, an important aspect of one's development. [4]
- b) James is on an academic scholarship that requires him to maintain a certain grade point average. He's had a rough term and needs to do well on his finals to pull the grades that will keep him on scholarship. James is often tense regardless of exam schedules, but when he found out he would have three finals on the same day, he had a meltdown. First, he was angry that his schedule turned out this way, and he complained bitterly about it to anyone who would listen. Then he got into an argument with his roommate, who was listening to music while James was trying to study. [4]

The night before his exams, James studied at the library all night. He skipped breakfast the next morning because he wanted to get to the classroom early. The teacher passed out the test and James began to read it. He felt absolute panic. All the typing on the page was running together, his vision was blurred, and he couldn't remember anything. The longer he sat there, the worse it got. Finally, he decided to guess on the questions and get out of the room as fast as he could. He was so upset that he skipped his next two finals as well. He spent the rest of the day hiding out in his bed, wondering what he was going to do and how he was going to tell his mother he flunked school.

- Q. 1. Is there anything James could have done to handle this situation better?
 2. What was the cause of tension between James and his roommate?
 3. What are some test-taking strategies that would have helped him do better on the test?
 4. If you were James's professor, how would you handle this situation?
9. a) "Life is a wheel consisting of six spokes." Absence of any one spoke would render life's purpose less meaningful. Thus, goals must be set in all the spokes or aspects of the wheel of life that are relevant for a purposeful living. What are these spokes or aspects of life? [4]
 b) What are the two tools Johari window and SWOT used for and why? [4]
10. a) A woman who had been employed in the office of a water transport business alleged she was made to feel unwelcome by her male co-workers who commented to her that the work would be too heavy and dirty for her. The male co-workers conceded, over time, that she was not able to perform the duties of the position. They would ridicule her at every opportunity they got. Matters became worse and she wanted to take action against this bias. What would you advise her to do? [4]
 Explain the process of redressing the grievance of sexual harassment against women at work place.
 b) Write what constitutes as 'Sexual harassment against women' as per the latest law SHAWAWP- ACT 2013 and how can a woman approach the various forums for protection. [4]
11. a) What should be the foremost guiding principle that one should keep in mind while making money? [4]
 b) Define 'Collegiality' and explain how it helps build interpersonal relationships and team skills? [4]
12. Answer any two of the following:
 a) How does the emotional quotient help in managing stress? [4]
 b) Mention two hidden potentials that you realized with the help of the Johari Window tool. [4]
 c) Mention three Civic Virtues that every individual must possess. [4]
